Attention Caregivers!!

Caregivers are welcome to attend, and participate in, ANY workshop, however, workshops under the heading "Workshops Designed for Youth and/or Caregivers" are hand picked to offer information equally important to youth and/or caregivers.

For more info, please contact Gerardo Marquez at gmarquez@orangewoodfoundation.org

EARN EXTRA ILP $: Especially during this time, we encourage all ILP eligible youth to complete take home activities in order to earn money in their ILP account. A list of all assignments can be found at: <https://www.orangewood4you.org/ilp/ilp-take-home>

THIS MONTH'S THEME: Education Planning

In-Person OR Virtual "Hybrid Workshops"

THIS WORKSHOP IS SCHEDULED AS A HYBRID WORKSHOP AT THIS TIME, BUT DUE TO RECENT COVID CASE INCREASES, PLEASE CHECK BACK FOR UPDATES AS WE GET CLOSER TO THE DATE.

Thursday, September 8th -Effective Study Habits: Study Smarter Not Longer - Laura McDonough from In N Out- our friend Laura is back to share some tips and tricks to make studying less of a hassle and more effective. Join us and share what works for you when it comes to studying.

Tuesday, September 20th -Financial Planning for Higher Education - Farmer's Merchant Bank- For those that will be starting college, plan on going to college, or are already in college, Farmer's Merchant Bank will be presenting on how to financially plan for higher education. They will discuss about College costs, Student Loans, FAFSA/Government Assistance, and Scholarships.

Wednesday, September 28th - How to effectively goal plan - The Raise Foundation - Come join in a discussion about the different types of higher learning education opportunities and resources available to interested students. Participants can discuss themes such as testing, admittance rates, college interviews, student housing options, scholarships or financing, and more. Let us know about the support, resources, or opportunities you might need to pursue your academic dreams. Workshop to include icebreakers, (maybe) mock interviews, and definitely giveaways. So...are you ready?
